IN-STATE TRAINING EVENTS 2004

Listed first are training events that are either presented, hosted, or sponsored by the Bureau of Aging and Long Term Care Resources

Following this list are all the trainings by month. Training organized by the Bureau of Aging & Long Term Care Resources is enclosed in a box to highlight it. Both in-state and out-of-state trainings are listed from March 2004 onward according to information we receive.

Bureau of Aging & Long Term Care Resources Trainings

FISCAL TRAINING can be provided upon request. Specific topics and locations will be determined by the county or group of counties making the request.

Sponsor: Bureau of Aging and Long Term Care Resources (BALTCR) and the Bureau of Developmental Disability Services (BDDS).

LONG TERM CARE FUNCTIONAL SCREEN

The automated Long Term Care Functional Screen (LTCFS) will eventually replace the COP Functional Screen used to determine level of care and eligibility for waiver participants. This training covers the technical aspects of using the screen and is intended for those counties that are making the switch to the LTCFS. This training is open to people working with the COP-W, CIP II, CIP I, and CSLA programs.

Location/dates: To be based on interested counties and their start dates.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For more information on Aging and Long Term Care courses, call Suzanna Waters Castillo at UW-Madison Division of Continuing Studies at (608) 263-3174 or 800-442-4617; scastillo@dcs.wisc.edu or (608) 265-2329; or visit website www.dcs.wisc.edu/pda/hhi/aging.

The Participatory Learning & Teaching Organization (PLATO) is the UW-Madison learning-in-retirement organization sponsored by the Division of Continuing Studies. This member-led group provides learning experiences for people of or nearing retirement age through discussion groups, lectures and social events. Groups meet on campus and throughout the city. For information, call (608) 262-3309.

The McBurney Disability Resource Center is the UW-Madison campus resource for students and non-employees with physical, psychological, sensory and learning disabilities. McBurney goals include providing academic, physical, electronic and attitudinal access to students with disabilities. McBurney staff work closely with students and faculty to develop disability-related service recommendation plans, which may include alternative testing, notetakers and/or interpreters, and taped/brailled course materials.

Other services provided to students include disability-related counseling, a peer mentor transition program, paratransit, accessible parking assistance, self-advocacy training, and advocacy regarding disability issues and accommodations with faculty and staff. The Center also provides training, information and referral for University staff and faculty on disability-related issues and serves as a clearinghouse for resources on disability issues.

For more information, call (608) 263-2741 or 263-6393 (TTY); FAX 265-2998; or write McBurney Disability Resource Center, 905 University Avenue, Madison, WI 53715; email: McBurney@macc.wisc.edu or visit Website www.dcs.wisc.edu/McBurney
